

Accordionists and Teachers Guild, International

A non-profit organization supporting world-wide accordion activities through active voting membership in the Confédération Internationale des Accordéonistes International Music Council (IMC-UNESCO)

January 2014

Its renewal time again! Members of the ATG, through the payment of Membership Dues, indicate they support the activities of all accordianists, whether they are players, teachers, or students. Your dues help put the accordion in the spotlight and bring it to the attention of the general public each year, especially during our annual festival.

Our dues cycle runs January through December.

Renewal rate $45 per year

Our festival is going to be in San Francisco from July 23-26, 2014 Check the website for details!

The ATG has sponsored and awarded more than $20,000 to young musicians through the Galla-Rini International Competition for Classical Accordion held in honor of Anthony Galla-Rini, ATG Emeritus President and Founder.

Your contribution helps the ATG continue its commitment to young accordionist worldwide.
