Celebration

The musical score is written on ten systems of two staves each. The notation includes rhythmic patterns, notes, rests, and dynamic markings. Key elements include:

- Section A: The first system ends with a double bar line and a circled '2' above it. The second system begins with a circled '2' above the first measure.
- Section B (DISCO BEAT): A box labeled 'B (DISCO BEAT)' is placed over the fourth measure of the fifth system. This section includes measures with circled numbers 3, 3, 4, and 5 above them.
- Section C: The sixth system begins with a circled '2' above the first measure.
- Section D: The seventh system begins with a circled '2' above the first measure.
- Section E: A box labeled 'E' is placed over the first measure of the tenth system. This section includes measures with circled numbers 2, 3, 4, and 5 above them.

Throughout the score, there are various musical notations such as eighth notes, quarter notes, and rests. Some notes have asterisks above them, and there are several double bar lines indicating section breaks. The word 'Fill' is written above the staff in several places, indicating drum fills.

Celebration

The image shows a handwritten musical score for a drum part titled "Celebration". The score is written on five staves. The first staff contains a series of eighth notes with stems pointing up, followed by a double bar line and a section labeled "Fill" with vertical lines. The second staff features a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, with stems pointing down, and includes a sharp sign (#) and a section labeled "Fill". The third staff continues with eighth notes and stems pointing down, with a section labeled "Fill". The fourth staff shows eighth notes with stems pointing down, a section labeled "Fill", and a circled "D" symbol. The fifth staff contains eighth notes with stems pointing down, a circled "D" symbol, and a section labeled "Fill". The score concludes with a double bar line and a final chord symbol.
